

Harry L. Morgan, MA, MDiv, ThM, PhD
Licensed Mental Health Counselor
Certified Forensic Mental Health Evaluator

Harry received a B.A. in Philosophy & Religion from Asbury University; a Masters of Divinity (M.Div.) in Theology from Asbury Theological Seminary; a Masters in Theology (Th.M.) in Pastoral Psychology from Princeton Theological Seminary; an M.A. in Mental Health Counseling at Argosy University; and a Ph.D. in Pastoral Counseling from Bethany Theological Seminary (summa cum laude). His doctoral dissertation is entitled Biblical Perspectives of Intra-familial Child Sexual Abuse. He did postgraduate studies in archeology with LaGrange College in Nazareth, Israel; in psychology at Oberlin College; in ecumenism at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, KY and Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) at the University of Kentucky. Harry's military education includes the U.S. Army Command & General Staff College and the Air War College.

He has served as a pastor for 50 years in New Jersey and Florida. In addition, he served as a chaplain in the U.S. Army Reserves for 29 years. His final tour of duty was as the III Corps (IMA) chaplain responsible for the mobilization of all National Guard and Reserve Chaplains and Chaplain Assistants West of the Mississippi. He retired in 1999 as a Lieutenant Colonel.

Harry served as faculty advisor, coordinator of the counseling department and adjunct professor at Webster University, Sarasota Campus. For several years, he lectured at Temple (Philadelphia, PA) and Rutgers (Camden, NJ) Law Schools on "Separation of Church & State Issues" and "Significant Tort Cases Involving Religious Freedom in the U.S.".

Harry is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor and Board Certified Psychotherapist, Diplomate (APA), a Certified Forensic Mental Health Evaluator, and a Clinically Certified Sex Offender Treatment Specialist. He was selected in 2009 in Who's Who in America for 42 years of experience in sexual abuse treatment. He is a member of the National Association of Forensic Counselors, International, International Trauma Training Institute, American Psychotherapy Association, Diplomate; and a member of the Association for Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA), the Florida Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (FATSA), and the international Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (IATSA). He is the Executive and Clinical Director of Biblical Counseling Center, with offices in Bradenton and Sarasota, Florida.

He has been married to his wife, Bonny, for 51 years. They have three daughters: Kara, Rebekah and Rachel, and seven grandchildren.